WASHINGTON CITY.

Activity in the Tobacco and Liquor Trade.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is encouraged to believe, from reports of officials throughout the country, and from evidences which reach the department of increased activity among distillers and tobacco dealers, manifested by the demand for revenue stamps, that there will be a very considerable increase in the revenue during the present year over last year. Other returns to the internal revenue office are very encouraging and indicate, in the opinion of officials here, a more cheerful condition of business affairs throughout the country.

CANADA.

The Times on the Canada Pacific Railway.

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 13.—The following is a special cable dispatch from London to the Globe of this city: The Times has a letter from its Canadian correspondent on the Pacific railway question. It acknowledges in its leading article that it was premature to speak of the failure of the Canadians to keep their agreement with British Columbia. There has not been any harm done which can not be easily repaired; but if the construction of the Vancouver Island railway is a small matter, the failure to construct it is more inexcusable. Canada has no right to repudiate even a small part of its accepted conditions, though, if the dispute can be narrowed down to a small point, there should be little difficulty in settling the controversy. The explanation does not leave the Canadian government in a creditable position, and for the sake of its honor it should adhere as far as possible to the strict terms of the bargain. A partial repudiation of the agreement creates a general sense of insecurity. It can only describe the proceedings as shabby on the part of the Canadians.

A telegram from Malta announces a severe shock of earthquake at Messina to-day, creating a panic, but no material damage was done. Some houses are reported damaged at Reggio.

Turkish Officials Arrested.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 13.—Fifteen Turkish officers implicated in the Bulgarian atrocities have been sent here under guard. They are the leaders indicated in the report of Blacque Bey, who has been investigating the atrocities. It is said Blacque Bey's report admits that the atrocities were indescribably horrible, and that his report will be suppressed.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The Post conspicuously invites attention to these arrests as evidence that the Porte is taking effectual measures to show his abhorrence of the unauthorized deplorable acts in Bulgaria. It says we may feel confident that Lord Derby and Mr. Elliott's earnest interposition has not been without effect in securing the punishment of the guilty and relief for the sufferers.

A special dispatch says the Porte has definitely resolved to refuse the armistice, but declares its readiness to discuss terms of peace.

Important Cabinet Council at Constantinople.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The Post says it has reason to believe that an extraordinary cabinet council, which was held yesterday at Constantinople, will prove of great importance toward the speedy and pacific solution of the conflicts in the Ottoman dominion concerning this council. The dispatch to Reuter merely says that conditions of peace were discussed.

A special to the Times, from Vienna, says the council was held for the purpose of reconciliating the resolution previously taken by the cabinet, and which should have been presented to the Powers on Monday. The correspondent says its reconsideration at the last hour is undoubtedly due to the step by the Powers at the initiative of England. Elliot, British ambassador, was in a position to know the resolution of the Porte to decline an armistice and come forward with conditions which were not likely to be accepted as a basis for pacification fit to be discussed. He of course, immediately informed his government. Two days intervened,—Thursday, the day of the investiture of the Sultan at the Mosque of Eyouband, and Friday, the Turkish Sabbath, when no official business is transacted. These two days were taken advantage of by the British cabinet to make, in conjunction with the Powers, one more effort to present to the Turks the gravity of the moment, and, if possible, induce them to reconsider the resolution they had taken. On Saturday, all the ambassadors had received instructions to join England in addressing new and urgent presentations to the Porte, which was done. It was one of those merely formal steps taken to fulfill a duty than with any belief in its possible efficacy. Although each ambassador made his communication singly, the language prescribed by their instructions was almost identical and represented most earnestly and impressively the dangers to which the Porte exposed the Empire if it rejected the opportunity afforded to put an end to the war, and that no one could save Turkey from the possible effects of such fatal resolution. Language like this, supported as it was with all authority of Great Britain, and the guaranteeing powers, appears not to have been without effect, for the answer that was about to be given the powers has been delayed, and the resolution has been taken under fresh consideration. There are no indications what the results of these deliberations may be, but all accounts from Constantinople concur that the impression produced has been a deep one. In the meantime the Turks have again commenced active operations in the field.

Tchernayoff Hard Pressed.

The tone of official bulletins from Belgrade do not indicate confidence in Tchernayoff's ability to hold his position, and the recall of Horvavorovich from the Turkish frontier where it had been declared he could defeat the Turkish campaign by interrupting communication with Niesic is evidence that Tchernayoff is hard pressed. The Times Belgrade correspondent says there is great depression there already, and a fresh disaster to the Servian army is currently reported.

Reported Defeat of the Servians on the Drina.

The Times correspondent telegraphs he has information from Metrovitz, confirming the reported defeat of the Servians on the Drina. On the 8th and 9th instant, the Servians were driven back to Shobatz, but as the Turks did not follow up their advantage, the Servians took up their line on the Dina on the 10th inst.

Trouble Brewing for Spain.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—There are indications that trouble for Spain is brewing in the Basque provinces. It will be remembered that on Aug. 6th the discovery and suppression of outbreaks in Pampeluna and Sebastian were reported, and on Sept. 4th it was announced that the Spanish government had given notice that armed guards would be furnished to passenger trains on application of the railway companies. Since then nothing has been heard in regard to the symptoms of disturbance in that quarter until last night, when a telegram stated that a rumor had reached Bourge Mademe from Puycerda that a pronunciamento had been made in Northern Spain. The Spanish legation at Paris to-day contradicted this report, but letters from Spain represent that great dissatisfaction exists among the inhabitants of the Basque provinces in consequence of the modification of the Fueros, measures to effect which were to be put in force this month. These measures include military conscription, collection of arrears of taxes, supplies and provisions for the army occupying the provinces. The letters above mentioned make no mention of an actual outbreak or a probable one.

Don Carlos.

Don Carlos and suite arrived at Liverpool on Monday and proceeded immediately to Pau where the Princess, his wife, is now.

Rumored Renewal of the Egyptian and Abyssinian War.

The Standard's Alexandria correspondent says report, apparently trustworthy, is current that the war between Egypt and Abyssinia will be renewed. Troops are leaving Suez for Massowah.

Turkish Political News.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The Standard's special from Constantinople says the Sultan has not approved the conditions of peace resolved upon by the council of ministers, and has ordered that the question be further considered by the great council which consists of eighty dignitaries. This is the cause for the delay in the Porte's answer to the European Powers. The deliberations of the great council are expected to result in milder terms for the Servians.

A dispatch to the Daily News from Odessa reports that the Turkish inhabitants of Phillipopolis and Tartar Bayard Bik have assumed a threatening attitude toward the Bulgarians. They declare that before many days there will be a further reduction in the population. The Musselman are all armed, while the Christians, ever since the collapse of the insurrection have been deprived of their weapons.

The British ambassador at Constantinople has been informed of the perilous situation of the Christian population.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times reports that in consequence of the renewed representations of European ambassadors at Constantinople, the resolution taken in the Cabinet Council on Wednesday of last week averts the danger threatening. Much dependence is placed on Mahomed Damod, the Sultan's brother-in-law, on whose advice it is supposed the Sultan mainly acts.

The Servians Retire from Alexinatz.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The Times' Belgrade dispatch says all the Servian troops have retired from Alexinatz except eight battalions, who are instructed to withdraw in case of attack.

Schuyler's Report.

The Daily Telegraph publishes a three column report of Schuyler, of the American legation, and of Prince Tzorteleff, of the Russian embassy, at Constantinople, regarding the Turkish atrocities north of the Balkans. The report recommends prompt, officious remedies, rather than investigations and explanations.

THE TERRITORIES.

The Intelligencer says: "The little son of Mr. Titus, of White river, whom we stated a few weeks since had gone to Portland for the purpose of having his crippled ankle and foot operated upon by the surgeons connected with the U. S. Surgical Institute, who were then stopping in that city, met with a serious accident on Sunday. He returned from Portland about a week ago. While there the cords of his ankle were cut by the surgeons, and his ankle and foot secured in a natural position by means of iron straps, and he was getting along nicely until Sunday, when, on his way to church on horseback, the horse took fright and suddenly threw him off. He was injured quite badly about the head and shoulders."

Judge Lewis, of Washinton Territory, rules that the act of the last legislature legalizing lotteries in the counties of King and Yakima is in contravention of the organic law, and therefore illegal. He instructed the grand jury of King county to present all persons who had issued lottery schemes under the provisions of the act, and intimated that they (the lottery dealers) were liable under the criminal code. In passing the law, says an exchange, and legalizing this species of gambling, the members of the legislature disgraced themselves, and we are glad that Chief Justice Lewis has the firmness to arrest the evil. Lotteries are the very worst species of gambling, and are so regarded by all civilized communities.

Mr. James R. LaDu, chairman of the last People's Convention of Cowlitz county, W. T., in compliance with the wishes of many of his fellow-citizens, and in the absence of any regular central committee, has issued a call for a People's convention, without distinction of party, to be held at Kalama on Friday, Sept. 22, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for joint councilman, joint Representative, and county officers, to be voted for at the coming general election. The precinct meetings are recommended to be held on Saturday, 16th, and representation is apportioned among the several precincts of the county on the aggregate vote for Delegate to Congress at the last election, to Castle Rock precinct 4 votes, Cedar creek 2, Kalama 11, Lancaster 3, Monticello 8, Oak Point 2, Owl creek 1, Pumphreys 2, Silver Lake 1.

Purification of Chinatown.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—The board of health held a special meeting this morning to discuss the question of disinfecting Chinatown as recommended by Dr. Meares, health officer. The opinion of the city and county attorney had been asked as to the legality of making a forced entrance into Chinese dens and compelling the use of sanitary measures. The attorney asked further time to consider the question, stating on an off-hand opinion that while in an ordinary state of affairs every man's house was his castle, still there were considerations which must override all merely technicalities. He will render a written opinion in a day or two. The report of the health officer as to the conduct of the Chinese in this matter occasions much indignation both among members of the board of health and community at large. The board are strongly in favor of adopting extreme measures and submitting the whole Chinese quarters to a general purification.

Leroy vs. Spring Valley Water Works.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—In the suit brought by Theo. Leroy vs the Spring Valley Water Works and others, to set aside the $1,000,000 in bonds issued by that company in payment for the Calaveras cow pasture, the defendants some time since moved Judge McKee to strike out those portions of plaintiff's complaint which allege a fraudulent conspiracy between Ralston, Felton, Howard, Ryder and several of the then members of the board of supervisors, to procure the city to purchase the cow pasture. The complaint charged in direct and explicit terms of bribing and corruption of the water company of the supervisors, of the water engineer, and of the board of directors of Spring Valley Water Works. The defendants wished to get these allegations stricken out inasmuch as that would preclude plaintiff from introducing any proof on that subject. The motion was elaborately argued some two weeks ago. Yesterday Judge McKee rendered a decision refusing to strike out the allegations mentioned.

Nevada State Fair.

RENO, Sept. 12.—The second day of the fair was a decided improvement both in attendance and exhibition. The pavilion is now completely filled with all articles, except in the vegetable and fruit line, which is very meagre.

At the races to-day there was a large attendance. The following is the result: First race, trotting premium of $500, Kelly, Translator, Bonner Kate, Charles H. and Lady Commins starting. The first heat was won by Commins, Kelly second; second heat, same; third heat won by Kelly, Commins second, Kate and Translator distanced; fourth heat and race won by Commins, Kelly second; time, 2:43¼, 2:46¼, 2:38, 2:37.

COWLITZ COUNTY POLITICS.

KALAMA, Sept. 13, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The Republican County Convention met here yesterday and elected H. W. Fairweather, L. H. Whitehouse and G. F. White delegates to the Territorial Convention. The delegates were recommended to support N. H. Bloomfield for prosecuting attorney for this district. Capt. G. R. Pyle was then nominated for joint councilman, and J. J. Foster, of Wahkiakum, for joint representative. The convention then decided not to nominate a county ticket at this time, but adjourned till October 4th. The majority of the people of this county take but little interest in party politics, and are determined to elect for county officers good men irrespective of their party affiliations.

Plenty of fresh oysters in the city from Yaquina Bay.

A large amount of wheat is coming into the city for storage.

Grading and arranging the streets is now in order in this city.

Tomatoes are abundant in this market, produced by the farmers.

The saw and grist mills of this city are said to be running on full time.

It is supposed that the farmers will get through harvesting this week.

Dr. Plummer, formerly a resident of Portland, has a fine drug store in this city.

We understand that the new pastor held service in the brown church last Sabbath.

A firm which runs a blacksmith shop in this place reports 3,000 pair of horse-shoes nailed on by them the past year.

The OREGONIAN is eagerly sought for in this city, in view of its numerous telegrams giving items of news from all parts of the world.

This beautiful city of churches attracts the attention of strangers to such an extent that many are constrained to make their homes in our midst.

It is supposed that the Albany Collegiate Institute will soon enroll one hundred students, which will be highly gratifying to us as old pioneers in this place.

The admission fees for the whole term of the Vienna Exhibition, which lasted 180 days, and was open every Sunday, aggregated only $1,032,390. Those of the Centennial—which is but three months and four days old, and which has been closed every Sunday—had amounted, last Saturday evening, to $981,073 25.

SUPERINTENDENT WATKINDS' REPORT.

PORTLAND, Sept. 12, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

A careful perusal of the report of the superintendent of the Oregon penitentiary, as published in the administration papers, suggested several pertinent inquiries, as well as demonstrated to my mind the fact, notwithstanding the universally accepted theory to the contrary, that figures in the hands of a bad man will lie. Introductory to his report he says:

"In the summing up of receipts, I have not taken into account the amount of grain and feed raised on the farm this season, which will largely increase the actual receipts."

Now would it be altogether proper to take this into account, inasmuch as he has taken into account at 50 cents per day the convict labor that produced the crop referred to?

Referring to the items physicians and drugs and medicines, which he has ingeniously mixed for some reason, he says:

"Finding that my bills for physicians and for drugs and medicines were increasing at too rapid a rate for the years 1873–'74, I employed Dr. Richardson, at the rate of $2.50 for each visit, and 50 cents for each prescription, and it will be seen by the superintendent's report for 1873–'74 that the expense for those years was $3,985 16, and that the State has saved in the past two years the sum of $910 44 on these items.

"Dr. C. C. Glass, an inmate of the prison, has served as hospital steward for the past two years, and by his prompt attention to the sick has aided much in preventing sickness and death among the prisoners, being on hand day and night in the hospital, caring for the sick and suffering."

Now, although nominally hospital steward, wasn't Dr. Glass really prison physician, and instead of a saving of $910 44 should it not have been at least the amount bestowed upon Dr. Richardson for nominal services?

Was the "fire" alluded to in his report used as a pretext to spirit away any of the property of the State, or to fill up gaps in his inventory? And did it not afford the superintendent a convenient opportunity to erect at the State's expense, extensive buildings for the use and benefit of Walter Jackson & Co., in which firm the superintendent was himself a silent partner?

If the superintendent's request for a new stockade is complied with, would it not be well to guard the appropriation so as not to make a job for some pal in the lumber business?

Are the items reported on hand at the close of 1874 in exhibit "B & D" in his last report viz:

Brick on hand	1,178,000	$ 7,036 80
Brick dirt thrown up ready for use, 4,177 yards		7,288 50
Bills receivable on hand	4,725 81
Accounts " "	3,751 52
" " due from U. S.	6,485 18
Interests accrued on notes &c.	1,100 16	15,062 67
		$29,371 17

included in and directly productive of the following items in this year's report.

RECEIPTS.

The total receipts from September 1st, 1874, to September 1st, 1876, have been:

Cash paid over to State Treasurer	$10,323 85
Bills and accounts receivable for convict labor, sales of brick, etc., and keeping U. S. prisoners	7,736 08
Convict labor and [illegible] turned over to State Capital Commissioners	11,994 87
Total	$30,052 80

And taking the amount on hand then, as above stated, from the amount paid over to the treasurer, together with the amount now on hand, does it not show the entire amount earned during the last two years out of three items referred to, to be exactly $681 63 instead of $30,052 80 as stated by the superintendent?

The only remaining items of income set forth by the superintendent are the following:

Convict labor on tannery, boot and shoe shops, blacksmith shop, mill race, pen-stock, etc., 7,414 days at 50 cents	$3,707 00
Convict labor improving farm and grounds, new stockade, etc., 7,425 days, at 50 cents a day	3,762 00

And this, you see, is altogether hypothetical, and as far as there are any means of correcting his figures, might as well have been doubled to help out his showing. How can you ascertain how many idle days are included in the latter item or whether he has excluded from the count those days when the prisoners were all locked in their cells to allow the guards to run the precinct meetings?

Respecting the cost per man per day for the past two years he says:

"Below, your Excellency will find tabular statements of what it costs many leading States to keep their prisoners. Taking the actual cost to the State over and above the various amounts to be received, or already received, viz.: the sum of $11,737 15 we find the expenses for one year, $40 12; one month, $4 00; one day, 13¼ cents."

Pennsylvania for 1874, average cost per day, 30¼ cents.

Kansas for 1874, average cost per day, 24¼ cents.

Now, in view of the false premises upon which it has been shown this calculation is based, is this a fair statement?—is it an honest one? And do you believe that the estimates of other States referred to are based upon any such false statements of income, or attained by such a questionable system of double-entry bookkeeping as is practiced by the wily "clerk" of our superintendent—a system intended to confuse rather than explain?

CONVICT LABOR.

In regard to leasing convict labor he says: "The Legislature at its last session passed an act authorizing the superintendent to lease all the available labor of the convicts confined in the prison to the highest bidder—no bid at less than 50 cents a day to be considered—for a term not longer than four years. According to this act I have leased to Geo. Collins 12 prisoners to work upon the brickyard, at 50 cts. per day, for four years; to Mr. Erwin, five men, for the same period and price, to work in blacksmith shop; to R. A. Ray & Son, ten men, with privilege thirty, to work in tannery, for the same price and term; to Mr. John Hackleman, fifteen men, to work in the boot and shoe manufactory, price and term the same. In all, 57 convicts, leased at 50 cents per day."

Why is nothing said about the prisoners leased to Walter Jackson & Co? If we remember correctly there was quite a controversy in the newspapers between the Superintendent and a Warden, Myers, in regard to a discrepancy of a hundred or two days' work between the prison tally and the amount paid for by that company (of which the Superintendent was a member). How is it after deducting from the $30,052 80, the amount turned over and now on hand, the $29,371 17 on hand at the beginning of the term that there remains only $681 83 to represent all the money, bills receivable and accounts receivable arising from the leased prison labor of the entire two years past; and such being the case why is the Superintendent so anxious to lease the prisoners for a longer time? Is he still in the shoe business, now run by the assistant treasurer, or does he only desire to give his old partner a lift?

Who is safe from the dastardly attacks of this man who seeks to prostitute his official position by attacking the character of private citizens?

Can you point to a single instance in the official records of any other State in the Union where such a vile load is dumped promiscuously into the archives of the State, and that, too, at the public expense? Is it not a direct insult to the intelligence of the legislative assembly for the chief executive to transmit an official report of one of his subordinates teeming with vituperation and abuse, as if inspired at a corner grocery?

The Superintendent next establishes his claim to infallibility as follows:

"Further, I take this occasion to say that I defy any person to show where I have defrauded the State out of one dollar, or misappropriated one, or made a single mistake in my management of the prison affairs, or where I have sold property belonging to the State to irresponsible parties."

After half a column of his characteristic bragadocio, referring to probable charges in the management of the prison, he says:

"I mention this because there were three bills before the last Legislature praying that honorable body to change the law governing the State penitentiary, not that they could show any dishonesty or extravagance in its management, but simply to gratify a coterie of dishonest and corrupt politicians, who at different times, while the [illegible] were pending, offered to have the bills defeated if I would pay them $1,000. That honorable body defeated both measures."

Now, as they complied with their part of the contract in having the bills defeated, the question is, did he comply with his—did the superintendent pay them the $1,000, the price agreed upon?

In acknowledging [illegible] of the visits of [illegible] and Christian women to the unfortunate [illegible], the superintendent makes a profession of faith ample and orthodox as to the [illegible] of future rewards; but silent and non-com[illegible] on the question of future punishment [illegible] his "lamp holds out to [illegible]" that he may yet be convicted [illegible] for trans[illegible]

THURSDAY MORNING SEPT 14 1876

THE OUTLOOK

Hayes and Wheeler clubs are organizing at all the principal towns of the State and it is expected that as soon as the busy harvest season is over, the Republicans in nearly every precinct will organize The Republicans never worked together more harmoniously than at present All personal differences are laid aside in the common wish to carry the State and nation for the cause of liberty, equality and reform The late elections at the East show that the Independent Republicans are satisfied, and more than satisfied with Gov Hayes, and the majorities approach those of the old times before ring rule did its work of dismembering the party The moral effect of these elections upon the State elections yet to be held, and upon the general result in November, must be very great. No wonder the Democratic State Convention of the State of New York yesterday had difficulty in finding a prominent man willing to become a candidate for Governor under the auspices of the Democratic party, with the Maine and Vermont elections so fresh in memory and the prophecy of those States staring them in the face There has been at no time any reason to apprehend the success of the Democracy in the Presidential election; but now, what with the alarm produced in the Northern mind by the terrorism in the South, the distrust and disgust excited by the [illegible] of Tilden's frauds upon the government, and the constantly increasing friction in the ranks of the Democracy on points of general policy, it [illegible] the most probable contingency that the defeat of Tilden will be as great a Waterloo as that of Greeley in 1872. [illegible] doubtful States are rapidly taking their places in the column of [illegible] set down as certain to go Republican, while several of those hitherto considered reasonably safe for Democracy may as well be set down in the doubtful [illegible]. Should the current of sentiment [illegible] till the day of election in the same [illegible], and further events fall [illegible] for the Republicans as [illegible] marked the campaign [illegible], the [illegible] strength in the [illegible] college will amount to less than [illegible] Republican speculators have [illegible] of estimating it.

PARDONS, COMMUTATIONS AND REMISSIONS.

The Governor's Message shows that he [illegible] pardoned sixteen persons out of the [illegible] during the past two years, [illegible] so pardoned under [illegible] of the statute relative [illegible]. The sixteen [illegible] H. [illegible], Charles Morell, [illegible] George C. Towle, Willie [illegible] Carroll, George Conner, [illegible] John Doherty, convicted of [illegible] Sherts, manslaughter; [illegible] and James Hayden, murder [illegible], John S. Pearce, [illegible] with a [illegible]; Miller Judd and Jas. [illegible] highway robbery; C. H. Cam[illegible] [illegible]. [illegible] sentence against Thomas [illegible] convicted of murder in the first [illegible] commuted to imprisonment [illegible].

[illegible] remissions were granted [illegible] the biennial term: $900 fines against William Haupert for selling liquor on Sunday; $100 fine against [illegible] for giving liquor to a [illegible]; $300 and costs adjudged against [illegible] Joyce for an assault; $100 against [illegible] Simmons for the same offense, and [illegible] forfeiture against H Johnson as [illegible] of Charles Starr.

The reasons for the exercise of executive clemency in each case are stated by the governor; and most of them, we [illegible] say, appear to be the same as [illegible] for pardoning out any [illegible] in the penitentiary. Some of [illegible] however, are really meritorious, [illegible] requires it to be conceded [illegible] the number of cases in which there [illegible] appear to have been any real occasion for executive clemency is not large [illegible] the reasons assigned for granting [illegible] pardons reported, there are some [illegible] as well as amusing ones [illegible] instance, in one case of larceny and [illegible] highway robbery the governor says [illegible] "extenuating circumstances" [illegible] with the commission of the [illegible], manslaughters, &c., may [illegible] attended by mitigating circumstances, [illegible] how can there be any circumstance [illegible] a deliberate theft or robbery? [illegible] other [illegible] of larceny the governor says the Judge before whom the conviction was had certifies that there [illegible] no criminal intent in the act charged as a larceny, and the judge, the prosecuting attorney who procured the conviction, and the grand jury that found the indictment, for that reason joined in the request for a pardon A larceny cannot be committed without criminal intent, such intent being of the very essence of the crime why then did a grand jury indict the man for larceny when there was no criminal intent? and why did the prosecuting attorney ask a conviction in such a case? Our criminal jurisprudence certainly needs a very thorough overhauling, if men who have committed no crime are thus convicted of infamous offenses and sent to the penitentiary

The Governor fails to tell us in his message how much of the school funds have been loaned on insufficient security, and uncollectable. His general statement that the fund is in good keeping may read well enough to those who are inclined to take things on truth, but it is not satisfactory to such as want to know the facts. Why does not the Governor tell us whether it is true that a large amount of the school funds are loaned out on interest has not been paid for years and no steps taken to secure either principal or interest? A good deal has been said on these matters heretofore and much of it is true beyond question but the Governor vouchsafes no explanation There ought to be a committee appointed by the legislature to investigate this subject The people ought to be informed concerning these loans—concerning the Myers agricultural works loan for instance and since the Governor sees proper to keep back the information the matter should be ventilated by the legislature "Let no guilty man escape."

A layman's opinion of the abilities of a professional man may be pretty accurately gauged by the price he is willing to pay for his services According to this if Mr Tilden, in 1862, only received $7 118 he could not have been considered a very great lawyer, for Mr. Edwin D Stoughton returned his income subject to taxation at $20 000 William M Evarts at $22 500 Daniel Lord at $29 324 Charles O Conor at $34 007 William C Barrett at $15 256 Samuel (now judge) Blatchford at $14 127 and James T Brady at $7,157 But, after all, Mr Tilden probably received as much as either of them only he was modest or something else, and did not like to tell it

The Democracy have had no end of trouble in securing a candidate for Governor of New York No wonder no one likes to run a race in which he feels sure of being defeated Gov, Tilden undertook to arrange things for the convention and the result of his management is far from creditable Notwithstanding Mr Hayes is alleged by the Democrats to be greatly inferior to Mr Tilden in political sagacity and foresight, he could hardly have blundered more than Mr Tilden has done

The Doncaster St Leger races resulted in a genuine sensation It was confidently expected that Kisber, the Derby and grand Prix de Paris winner, would win the St Leger, and he started first favorite at the short price of 2 to 1 But, contrary to all expectations, the winner turned up in the despised Petrarch. It may be remembered that Petrarch was first favorite for the Derby won by Kisber, and now Petrarch has turned the tables on his rival

We noticed a day or two ago a real curiosity in a branch cut from an Oregon pear tree The branch was about fifteen inches long and had on it twenty eight fully grown and handsome pears We do not know the name of the pear, but they were round and each about an inch and a half or an inch and three-quarters in diameter They hung on the branch so closely that they made a bunch like a cluster of currants.

The Standard pronounces Governor Grover's [illegible] "a masterly State paper," and lauds it in much more of the same sort of phrase. The intelligent reader is more likely to say it is a very long string of the flattest kind of pointless, and, in some places ungrammatical twaddle, with one or two exceptional passages possessing more pith and marrow. But an organ must be an organ, you know

The Democracy assert that Mr. Hayes has had no experience in public affairs, and consequently it is absurd to suppose that he can beat Gov. Tilden in the coming election. Messrs. Allen, Pendleton and Thurman think he had pretty good luck in beating them anyhow, and they don't think Tilden is any harder to beat than they were.

The indications are that the American rifle team are going to carry off the honors of the international match. They have already secured a handsome lead, and their shooting has been so evenly good that there is little room to doubt that they will do as well in the 1,000 yards trial to-day and win the trophy.

All the Independent Republicans having declared for Hayes, the independent Democrats are beginning to fall into line. The dispatches state that a prominent independent Democrat of Ohio has announced his intention to take the stump for the Republican candidate

They do say our excellent friend Senator VanCleave is of the opinion that for ways that are dark and for tricks that are vain, the average Democratic politician is peculiar, which is why he did not appoint those committees

RUPTURE!

No More Metallic Trusses Used!
No More Suffering from Iron Hoops or Steel Springs!

THE SUPERIORITY OF OUR ELASTIC Trusses over the rigid Iron Hoops which in former days were the only resource of the ruptured admits of NO ARGUMENT.

By means of this appliance the pressure on the Rupture itself can be made uniform and continuous and to the extent required in each case until a slight inflammation of the parts is secured and the consequent effusion of lymph which is essential to a healing process and from this time to the conclusion of the treatment the pressure being entirely within the control of the patient can be lessened daily as the adhesion progresses and the body becomes sound All cases of reducible Hernia are permanently relieved without regard to the age of the patient or the duration of the injury while in its action it is wholly free from all the cruelty that has characterized the treatment of the malady with torturous Metal Trusses from the earliest age to the present day Your attention is called to the following facts

1st—There are no springs to press upon or to injure the back
2d—It is simple in construction and not liable to get out of order
3d—This instrument is worn with perfect ease while riding horseback
4th—The Rupture is retained and the pressure the same while in any position
5th—It has none of the injurious results of metallic Trusses
6th—It will perform radical cures when all others fail
7th—It is worn with ease and comfort night and day which cannot be said truthfully of any metal Truss whatever
Experience shows that all tempered spring Truss springs necessarily press upon at [illegible] parts of the body that before were [illegible] healthy condition [illegible] lumbago and [illegible] distressing ailments [illegible] growth of [illegible] pressure [illegible] It becomes a matter of [illegible] at [illegible]

BOARD OF TRADE.

REGULAR MEETING, SEPT. 13, 1876.

A meeting of the Board of Trade was held last evening at the rooms at 8 o'clock.

Hon. H. W. Corbett, president of the board, in the chair, and Wm. Reid, secretary, present.

Minutes of the last regular meeting, read and approved.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The following communications were read, received, and ordered to the files:

PORTLAND, Aug. 11, 1876.

WM. REID, Esq., Secretary Board of Trade—Dear Sir: Capts. Reed, Ferchen and myself having made soundings at St. Helens bar, we found the channel running from the "old wharf" at St. Helens to "Austin's house," on the opposite side, practicable, and, in our opinion, the best one for ships, as it has the advantages of being shorter, straighter, and a more uniform depth of water, and would most respectfully ask that three good spar buoys be placed to mark the channel as soon as possible. Very respectfully,

RICHARD HOYT.

PORTLAND, Sept. 13, 1876.

COL. WILSON, U. S. Engineer—Dear Sir: Permit me to refer you to copy of letter from the river pilots accompanying this note, and to ask whether you can comply with the requests named, or, if you cannot, may I ask who can, and whether you will kindly say the probable cost of the three buoys asked by the pilots. Yours truly,

WILLIAM REID,
Secretary of the Board.

COL. WILSON'S REPLY.

U. S. ENGINEER'S OFFICE,
PORTLAND, Sept. 13, 1876.

William Reid, Esq., Secretary Board of Trade—DEAR SIR: In reply to yours of this date, I have to state that the buoying of the Columbia river is in charge of Capt. Kempff, lighthouse inspector at Astoria. I called his attention on the 11th inst. to the fact that the old ship channel was closed, and asked him, if possible, to place two spar buoys on the line indicated by the pilots. Several days before Capt. Hoyt and the other gentlemen sounded over St. Helens' bar; lately I placed two temporary buoys on this line; they were, however, only pieces of scantling, and do not show well. Three good spar buoys, with necessary anchors, would cost about seventy-five dollars each in Portland. I have no buoys on hand, but if Capt. Kempff cannot put down any more, I will telegraph for authority to purchase same. Capt. Kempff will do everything in his power, I am certain, to properly buoy the channel. Very respectfully,

JOHN M. WILSON,
Bvt. Colonel, U. S. A.

REPORTS.

A report was read from the legislative committee and adopted.

A "bill to license selling by sample"—referring to all persons engaged in that business, whether residents of Oregon, California or elsewhere which the committee returned to the Board, was read.

Mr. Goldsmith moved that the Board recommend the bill to the State Legislature for its favorable consideration and passage; that the secretary of the Board forward a copy of the bill to a member of that body from this county to present the same for its action. Motion carried.

A "bill to protect the salmon fishing interests of the State," which was also returned to the Board by the legislative committee, was read by sections, discussed at some length, amended, and on motion recommitted to the committee, and when perfected to be forwarded to the legislature for its favorable action.

Mr. Burrell moved that the vote by which the bill relative "to license selling by sample" was endorsed by the Board, be reconsidered, and that the further consideration of the same be deferred until next Wednesday evening, when an adjourned meeting will be held. Motion carried.

The bill relating to immigration was read, and recommended by the Board to the favorable consideration of the legislature.

The Springfield Milling Co., and B. J. Pengra were admitted to membership in the Board.

RESOLUTION.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the treasurer be and he is hereby instructed to pay to the Oregon Steamship Company a further sum of $40 as the Board's contribution for Range Lights at St. Helens up to 31st July inclusive, and that no further appropriation be hereafter made.

On motion the Board adjourned until next Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

SEND ON YOUR FRUIT.

At the request of the committee appointed at the meeting of the fruit growers in our State, to pack and forward all fruits sent in for exhibition at the Centennial Exposition, we publish the following:

PORTLAND, OGN., Sept. 13, 1876.

To the Fruit Growers and Citizens of Oregon—The material interests of this State demand that an exhibit of its fruits be made at the Centennial Exhibition, and for the purpose of assisting, the undersigned committee request that samples of Oregon fruit be sent to their address, where it will be received, packed and forwarded to Commissioner Dufur at Philadelphia. We earnestly hope that an exhibit worthy of this State will be made, and believe that Oregon can compete for the prize of first and best fruit growing State in America. The expenses of forwarding and packing will be paid by the Finance Committee, which has been appointed and is now engaged in procuring subscriptions for that purpose.

REPORT OF THE STATE COMMISSIONERS OF IMMIGRATION.

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Oregon—Your board created by an act of the Legislature, approved October 28th, 1874, to attend to the immigration interests of this State, was duly commissioned by the Governor in November, 1874, but was not organized till January, 1875.

The legislature having failed to make an appropriation to carry into effect the objects of this board, contributions had to be solicited from the citizens of Portland, by whose aid alone, together with valuable assistance from the land department of the O. & C. R. R. Co., has the board been sustained and done the State and immigrants who have since arrived, valuable service.

A secretary without salary, and an assistant secretary with salary, were appointed in February, 1875, who have since continued in office and given the board their services, being in daily attendance on immigrants. A special agent was appointed for distribution of circulars and pamphlets on the Union Pacific railroad, and a salaried agent was sent from Oregon to San Francisco with an office provided for him there in order to give immigrants arriving in that city from the East and from California, all information as to Oregon, whose duty it is also to see that such immigrants are sent to this State. These agents have done good service, and the board is much indebted to the Oregon Steamship Company and Oregon Steam Navigation Company, for the contributions which they have made for paying the San Francisco agent's salary and office rent. On the recommendation and request of your board the governor has issued (under the immigration act, approved Oct. 24, 1874), 24 special commissions to gentlemen carefully selected by us, as Oregon Immigration Commissioners in sister States and foreign countries, of which 10 are residing in Europe, 10 in the United States, 2 in New Zealand and 2 in Canada. These gentlemen are in regular communication with the board, and have forwarded numbers of immigrants into Oregon. The board has also at Astoria a paid distributor of cards or circulars from this board, whose duty consists in delivering, on the arrival of each San Francisco steamer at Astoria, cards to immigrants on board stating the objects of your commission, and earnestly pressing such immigrants on their arrival at Portland to call at the immigration rooms there, and receive all necessary information and guidance to enable them to settle in the various portions of the State. The Board of Trade of Portland for upwards of a year tendered their rooms for the use of immigrants rent free, and thereafter the secretary (Mr. Reid) has, during the last six months, also tendered to the Immigration Board rent free a reception room for the use of immigrants and for the assistant secretary.

A record has been kept of the number of letters received by the board in relation to immigration, which were 5,616 for the 18 months preceding 9th September, 1876, principally from persons in the Eastern States and from Oregon's commissioners of emigration abroad, the majority of which letters had to be separately answered in writing, as they contained various pointed questions asked in relation to this State. This board has printed nine different circulars relating to Oregon's resources, climate, and lands for sale, in all 147,500 copies printed, of which there have been distributed in the East and in California, abroad, in Canada, New Zealand and elsewhere, and to intending immigrants 83,000 copies, in addition to which the board received from Henry Villard, Esq., president of the O. & C. R. R. Co., a donation of 15,000 pamphlets, with maps of Western Oregon. The Eastern branch of the State Board of Immigration at Boston inform us that they have, at their own expense, distributed in the Eastern States 50,000 copies of pamphlets and 25,000 circulars, have received over 8,000 letters from persons as to Oregon, the most of which they answered in writing; that they advertised the resources of Oregon continually for two years in forty-five different newspapers in the New England and Western States and European countries. For the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia the Eastern branch also printed at their own cost a special edition of pamphlet, 20,000 copies of which were sent to the Oregon department of the Centennial for distribution. In short they inform this board that their united expenditure for immigration purposes during the last two years has been over $24,000.

Keeping these facts in view, your honorable body will see that the assistance derived by this board and the State from the labors of the Boston branch of the Oregon Immigration Board and the land department of the Oregon and California Railroad combined, has been invaluable.

The circulars delivered on board the steamers at Astoria requesting immigrants to call at the Immigration rooms, have had the desired effect; consequently immigrants come daily to the rooms, where they are received by the assistant secretary and secretary, and frequently by the commissioners, all information is afforded them and their various wants, so far as in the board's power to supply, are attended to. Those who arrive in search of labor receive whatever employment is open in the board's labor record book. Direct orders for help are received: and those not so provided are directed to such localities as offer best inducements, and furnished with letters to enable them to secure employment. This Labor Record is of much importance to the Board, as it gives the immigrant courage, relieves distress, and prevents useless waste of his means while in search of employment. If taken more advantage of by the citizens of the State, much more good would follow to the immigrant and those employers of labor, farmers and such like. Immigrants in search of lands are handed printed lists of private lands for sale (which lists contain answers to the Board's advertisements in most of the Oregon newspapers for descriptions of lands for sale, for use of immigrants). The Board does not undertake the sale of such lands, however, leaving the owner and purchaser to complete whatever bargains they may mutually agree upon, and the immigrant to choose which of the farms he prefers. All information is given of State and government lands, and where located, all over the State.

If, as frequently happens, that complaints are made by immigrants of being imposed on by sharpers, these complaints are investigated, and the proper authorities communicated with. Occasionally the Board has had in court to watch the interests of immigrants of whom an advantage was being taken by unprincipled persons.

The Board some time ago concluded contracts with one of the Atlantic steamship companies to carry emigrants to Oregon from Europe to New York at half the usual rates. This contract has been largely taken advantage of, and will not expire till the 5th of May, 1879. Arrangements were made, and still in force, by which the Oregon Steamship Company carry all persons certified by the Oregon Commissioners or one of the Foreign Commissioners of Emigration as bona fide emigrants to Portland at modified rates of fare in the steerage, while the California R. R. Company agreed to carry to all immigrants when they first arrive in Portland to their destination "up country" at half fares, at which rates in 1875 they carried 3,000 persons, and in 1876 to the 7th of September 2,100 persons. These benefits are largely taken advantage of, and persons lately from the East and Europe frequently in consequence receive from the Board such certificates to bring their friends here.

Circulars were forwarded by one of the Multnomah county granges to every grange in Oregon, asking answers as to the advantages, resources, products and prices in every locality, from which answers your Board selected one in every county and printed for each county the information so given by such county grange. 50,000 circulars of this nature were printed for circulation.

It is the Board's experience that a careful distribution of samples of Oregon's products is of vast service in inducing immigration to our shores. Consequently a large assortment of samples is kept in the Board's rooms at Portland and forwarded forwarded by us to each of the States' foreign commissioners and to certain parties seeking such information as to our products. To various museums in Europe, to a few States and to New Zealand, have been forwarded assorted samples of Oregon grains, which, we are informed, are permanently kept in exhibition, the fruits of which are seen in the letters of persons who have observed these samples writing to us for further information.

It is difficult to procure an accurate statement of the arrivals in and departures from our State so as to ascertain definitely our increase of population. But judging from the most reliable data we have obtained, we believe that during the last twenty months 11,213 immigrants have arrived in this State. The large majority of immigrants come from the Western and Northwestern States, a good number from Europe and New England States, and from New Zealand; from which latter colony your board procured the names of 5,000 persons, principally sheep and agricultural farmers, to whom were mailed 5,000 copies of a printed circular, describing Eastern Oregon as a sheep country and Western Oregon as a grain growing section. Already many immigrants have arrived from New Zealand, and judging from the letters we receive and the opinions expressed by our Immigration Commissioners in that colony a larger number will follow next year.

Without the generous assistance in money contributed by the people of Portland the board feels satisfied that its labors could not have been successfully conducted, and while the board cheerfully offers to continue its services to the State, as heretofore, without compensation, yet it respectfully begs to represent to your honorable body that its funds are now exhausted, and the people of Portland feel that they ought not, in future, to alone bear the necessary expense which is annually entailed in sustaining your State Board of Immigration. If the State's resources are to be developed and its immigrants guided and protected after their arrival here,—which we submit is the State's duty so to do,—Portland will, in taxation, naturally bear her share, it being about one-fourth of whatever sum the State should appropriate for immigration purposes; and as the benefits derived from an increase of our agricultural population, which we so much need, are not limited to Portland but, scattered among all classes of the State, especially in the enhanced value of farm lands, your board respectfully ask your honorable body to appropriate at least $4,000 per year for two years for immigration purposes. As every section of Oregon is directly benefitted and shares in the fruits of immigration, so much needed for our State, it is but right that all should share in whatever expense is incurred.

Your honorable body is aware, we presume, that State Immigration Boards exist in Minnesota, Kansas and Missouri, and most other Western States, and in all the British colonies. That the State of Minnesota and Kansas have, through their Immigration Board increased their populations from 107,110 persons in 1860, to 364,399 in 1870, and Minnesota from 172,022 in 1860 to 439,706 in 1870; also that the Department of State report at Washington, D. C. showed on 30th March, 1870, that 345,053 immigrants had arrived, two thirds of whom had gone to the Western States. The Commissioner of Immigration at Castle Garden, New York, estimates the worth to a State in labor, and the money which each immigrant brings with him to $1,275 in value. Taking it for granted, even that the 11,213 persons who arrived within this State during the last two years, only contributed $500 each (instead of $1,275) toward the development of the State resources the State will in taxation alone derive from the settlement of these persons, at least $10,000; consequently your board respectfully submits that whatever State appropriation is voted for immigration purposes will be returned to the State twofold in taxes alone; so that practically the immigrants themselves (after their arrival in Oregon) will repay to the State considerably more in taxes than the appropriation voted for bringing them hither. It is unnecessary for us to remark that beyond the pecuniary benefits so derived in taxes by the State our various industries, and especially agriculture, will, by a continued flow of immigration, instead of lying dormant be sustained, and thus increase our trade and commerce, and benefits be felt by all classes.

Your board would humbly represent that in their opinion, next to railroad connection with the East, this matter of immigration is of vital importance to the State, and ought to receive what your board respectfully asks,—the careful consideration of your honorable body.

THE TURF.

The editor of the Mountain Sentinel says: "We have visited the race track and have taken a look at the flyers there in training for the Union county fair. We found J. S. Delevan busily engaged in exercising his band of trotters, consisting of Bashaw, the well known trotting station. Bashaw has just arrived from Portland, where he has been exercised during the summer, and is in splendid condition. Warnick's Belfounder filly, Mary Warnick, under the careful training of 'Yorkey,' is improving rapidly, and furnishes evidence of speed and bottom. Belfounder Jr., the property of Keeney & Delevan, is a beautiful coal-black stallion and will undoubtedly show a good record this fall. Roan Dick, a six-year-old Belfounder, also property of the same parties, looks well and is exhibiting good speed. Royal John, a beautiful bay stallion, the property of A. L. Gordon, formerly of La Grande, is being trained for the stallion purse and his trainers expect to be able to make him show good time. Belmont, a sorrel stallion, the property of John Hilton, of Umatilla county, is a fine-looking animal and rapidly developing speed and staying qualities. Jim Mason is also camped on the track with Josh Billings and Fern-Digger, John Dadd's running horses, and Lottie Taylor, a four-year-old Belfounder, which he is training in harness. James Bartimess is the owner of a three-year-old Snowflake gelding, which he is having exercised with good prospects for speed. John Brandes is also on the ground, training Dan and Lindsey.

The Misdirection of the Bile.

The misdirection of the bile, a consequence which ensues when the liver is inactive and the bowels torpid, produces a number of bodily evils. The blood becomes contaminated with the bilious fluid, causing the skin and the whites of the eyes to assume a yellowish tinge; dyspepsia and nausea supervene, the tongue becomes furred, the breath fœtid, there are pains in the side and between the shoulder blades, the urine is high colored and scalding, and in aggravated cases jaundice and inflammation of the liver ensue. All these consequences may be prevented or obviated by using Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a vegetable alterative tonic which stimulates the inactive liver to exert itself in secreting and directing the bile, acts naturally upon the bowels and removes every trace of indigestion.

DR. WARNER'S SANITARY CORSET.

TESTIMONIAL.

VICTORIA, B. C., August 10, 1876.

MRS. M. A. WARNER—Dear Madam: Six months ago I received from you one of Dr. Warner's Health Corsets. The benefit from its use is wonderful. For six years I suffered—pronounced consumption—with severe pains of the stomach, chest, lungs and back, loss of appetite, and headache, during the time I wore the old style corset—long, stiff bones, laced tight. Ignorance of course. A few days after I wore Dr. Warner's Health Corset I felt better; continued to improve, and now am free from pain, have good appetite, breathe free, and feel as when I was a girl. What a blessing to the human race are those corsets! Enclosed is $2 50 currency. Send No. 22 White London Cord by mail. Respectfully,

MRS. JENNIE HASTINGS.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

PORTLAND, Sept. 12, 1876.

CITY EDITOR OREGONIAN:

As Secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, in this city, permit me to express my thanks to you for the many and repeated notices which you have placed in your columns on behalf of the defenseless and cruelly treated horses in our city. No humane person can witness the unfortunate lot of these poor dumb brutes, toiling from day to day in a diseased and half starved condition, without being excited to deepest sympathy. Many of these poor skeletons have been worked until they stagger along on the streets like intoxicated men. And when the last hour's work had been extorted from them by kicks and gads, they were then turned loose within the city limits, without food or shelter,—such being the reward of the average cart-horse in Portland. I have frequently called the attention of owners and drivers of these misused horses to their unfit condition to perform the labor forced upon them, and in every instance have been met with insults and curses. I now ask the good and humane people of this community, and there are scores of such here, if such scenes, and the violation of the laws of humanity and decency, shall be permitted to continue, and exist in this city of churches, Christian associations and moral society, and to be witnessed by our wives and children who plead in vain for the poor dumb creatures. Example is a powerful teacher, and the boy who becomes familiar with these daily cruelties and tortures, coupled with obscene language and fearful oaths, will soon fall an easy prey to temptation and inevitable ruin. One word of explanation to the public is due to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, in this city. Persons witnessing these frequent and inhuman acts of cruelty, at once ask, what has become of the above mentioned Society? Why do they not suppress these scenes and arrest the offenders? The answer simply is, No law to protect the successful working of this society, save in extreme cases, where the whole community are offended.

We have a city ordinance; but it does not provide for overloading and overworking. Now, who is the man among our newly-elected legislators who, like the distinguished Henry Bergh, of New York, is willing to make a public martyr of himself in causing to be passed, during the present session of the legislature, a law which will protect this society, protect the feelings of mankind, protect the interests of our State, and, most of all, protect man's most useful servant and all inferior creatures. Respectfully yours,

W. T. SHANAHAN,
Sec. S. P. C. A.

WHY RUN ANY RISK WITH YOUR COUGH, COLD, HOARSENESS, or indeed any Pulmonary or Bronchial Complaint, when a remedy safe, thorough, and so easily obtainable as Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant can be had? If you have contracted a severe Cold, save your Lungs from the dangerous irritation and inflammation, which frequently brings about Consumption, by promptly resorting to the Expectorant; and if troubled with any Affection of the Throat, you will find this remedy equally effectual in affording relief from obstructing phlegm, and in healing the inflamed parts.

THE LITTLE BLACK-EYED REBEL.

A boy drove into the city, his wagon loaded down
With food to feed the people of the British-governed town;
And the little black-eyed rebel, so cunning and so sly,
Was watching for his coming from the corner of her eye.

His face looked broad and honest, his hands were brown and tough,
The clothes he wore upon him were homespun, coarse, and rough;
But one there was who watched him, who long time lingered nigh,
And cast at him sweet glances from the corner of her eye.

He drove up to the market, he waited in the line—
His apples and potatoes were fresh and fair and fine;
But long and long he waited, and no one came to buy,
Save the black-eyed rebel, watching from the corner of her eye.

"Now, who will buy my apples?" he shouted long and loud;
And "Who wants my potatoes?" he repeated to the crowd;
But from all the people round him came no word of a reply,
Save the black-eyed rebel, answering from the corner of her eye.

For she knew that 'neath the lining of the coat he wore that day
Were long letters from the husbands and the fathers far away,
Who were fighting for the freedom that they meant to gain or die;
And a tear like silver glistened in the corner of her eye.

But the treasures, how to get them? crept the question through her mind,
Since keen enemies were watching for what prizes they might find;
And she paused a while and pondered, with a pretty little smile;
Then resolve crept through her features, and a shrewdness fired her eye.

So she resolutely walked up to the wagon old and red;
"May I have a dozen apples for a kiss?" she sweetly said;
And the brown face flushed to scarlet, for the boy was somewhat shy,
And he saw her laughing at him from the corner of her eye.

"You may have them all, for nothing, and more, if you want," quoth he.
"I will have them, my good fellow, but can pay for them," said she;
And she clambered on the wagon, minding not who all were by,
With a laugh of reckless romping in the corner of her eye.

Clinging round his brawny neck, she clasped her fingers white and small,
And then whispered: "Quick! the letters! thrust them underneath my shawl!
Carry back again this package, and be sure that you are spry!"
And she sweetly smiled upon him from the corner of her eye.

Loud the motley crowd were laughing at the strange, ungirlish freak,
And the boy was scared and panting, and so dashed he could not speak;
And "Miss, I have good apples," a bolder lad did cry;
But she answered, "No, I thank you," from the corner of her eye.

With the news of loved ones absent to the dear friends they would greet,
Searching them who hungered for them, swift she glided through the street.
"There is nothing worth the doing that it does not pay to try,"
Thought the little black-eyed rebel, with a twinkle in her eye.

[illegible] VASE AT THE CENTENNIAL.

[illegible] is [illegible] probably the most precious and beautiful porcelain ever produced. [illegible] the most difficult of all pottery to [illegible]. It is purely a chemical compound, [illegible] soft and vitreous, and can be [illegible]. Indeed, its inventors believed that Chinese porcelain was a [illegible] glass, prepared and compounded to a paste [illegible]. Its chief artistic peculiarity [illegible] in its combining with the glaze and [illegible] incorporating the colors of the [illegible] with it. As it is fired at a low heat [illegible] of the colors remains unimpaired [illegible] of these colors is too long to be [illegible], but they comprise the most beautiful [illegible] to chemistry. Bleu de roi, bleu celeste and rose du Barry (Pompadour), are some [illegible].

The best period of pate tendre was from [illegible] to 1800. By a royal edict, after the king [illegible] proprietor of the works, all other factories were restricted to the manufacture of porcelain painted with blue figures in imitation of [illegible] wares. The marks during the [illegible] was a double L with a letter of the alphabet, beginning with A; then a [illegible] in the same sequence. During [illegible] the marks were various. It is a [illegible] that Sevres possesses no collection [illegible] wares made during this epoch, [illegible] collections are owned in [illegible]. As a specimen of the value attached to the pieces I may cite the last sale of [illegible] which was of any importance, when [illegible] jardinieres brought £10,000.

[illegible] to the display in Memorial Hall. [illegible] of the vases are exceedingly varied, [illegible] according to the custom at Sevres, names [illegible] to them either from their special [illegible] or ornamentation, or from the names [illegible]. The largest and most conspicuous is a vase Alexandre Bonquiart [illegible] grandeur. It resembles an [illegible] vase in the swelling contours [illegible] the body, the curved lip, and the [illegible] neck and base. The handles, [illegible], are upright, and end in whorls. [illegible] stands nearly seven feet high. Its [illegible] is a pure translucent white of wonderful [illegible], and the glaze has all the smoothness of a mirror. Yet the very chemical qualities which give this magnificent result render such surface decoration impossible. The [illegible] hardness of the glaze prevents the colors [illegible] incorporating with it, and they lie exposed upon the surface. The composition and [illegible] are by M. Barriot. It represents the Genius of the Arts and Sciences, a naked child sitting cross legged in the calyx of a sunflower, holding the compasses in one hand and the globe in the other. The drawing of the figure is conventionalized and is well done. The obverse of the vase has the same design. Butterflies are introduced flying upward from the base of the plant, and gilt stars are scattered sparingly over the white surface. Gilt rays radiate from around the Genius, and harmonize well with the flower. The leaves and stem are so arranged as to decorate the lower part of the vase, and spears of ripened grain are introduced about the handles. A blackberry vine, conventionally treated, is painted around the plinth. Blue and gilt is sparingly introduced in the decorations of the upper and lower members of the piece, and there is a great deal of the same color and gilding in the handles, which end below in rosettes and ducks' heads.—N. Y. Tribune.

A CLAM-BAKE.—The Olympia Echo says: "The Masons, together with their friends, had a clam bake Wednesday the 6th, on the west side. Clams and oysters were first served—after they had been roasted—on newspapers, shingles, fir boughs, etc. Owing to the absence of 'Oregon Brethren' this year, the supply of clams held out. After dinner Gen Pike was introduced by Capt Lawson. The old General then made a few remarks, explaining as well as possible before a strange audience, the worth of Masonry. When Gen Pike had concluded, the crowd undertook to sing "Auld Lang Syne," but failed, then they embarked for the city."

An explosion of gas occurred at the Victoria Hotel (Victoria) on the 8th, doing considerable damage to the house and burning Mr. Richardson, proprietor, slightly, also a Mr. Deasy. The explosion was heard half a mile away.

VALUABLE LANDS FOR SALE.

600,000 Acres in

EASTERN OREGON!

For Farming and Grazing Purposes.

THESE LANDS ARE SITUATED IN WASCO, Grant and Baker counties, and are offered for sale in such sized tracts, not less than 160 acres as purchasers may desire. Here is afforded a most favorable opportunity to immigrants and settlers seeking homes and low priced land to acquire both on the most reasonable terms. These lands are excellent for farming and grazing. On most of the tracts no grubbing, or other preparation of the land for plowing is requisite. A growth of nutritious grass covers the uplands affording the best of pasturage, while in the valleys and bottom lands the grass can be mowed and made into hay. Living springs and streams water the lands in various directions. The uplands or rolling lands can be put into crops with the most satisfactory return. Fruit, particularly peaches, plums, grapes, apples, pears and cherries, as well as the smaller fruits, can be grown in great abundance. The climate of Eastern Oregon is very healthful. Flourishing towns are located at convenient points for trade. The mails are regularly conveyed throughout that section and a prosperous population is already established, occupied in farming, stock growing, mining and various other pursuits.

Terms $1 25 per acre and upwards according to quality and quantity. Interest ten per cent on deferred payments.

For further information, apply in person or by letter to GEO. T. CURRY, Agent, Pree's Building, Stark st. bet. Front & First.

LAND FOR IMMIGRANTS.

Choice Farms for Sale.

4,000 ACRES, IN QUANTITIES TO SUIT PURCHASERS.

230 ACRES DUE SOUTH AND ADJOINING the Railroad Depot at Salem, all under cultivation, and suitable for grain or vegetables.

946 Acres, four miles southeast of Salem, on the railroad, with Mill creek running through it. This is the choicest farming land in Marion county, with fine springs, consisting in part of the old Rector donation claim, on which I raised the past year fifty bushels of wheat and three tons of timothy per acre. The first crop of oats ever raised on part of this land measured ninety-four bushels per acre, grain weighed and ground chained by Mr. Alfred Stanton, of Salem.

2,700 Acres of prairie and light brush land, with timber for farming purposes, bounded by the Willamette River for four miles, beautiful lake on the east, boat landings all along the River, commencing four miles north of Salem—all choice grain land—the largest and most suitable body of land to be found in the Willamette Valley to be purchased by a colony. To be sold from $15 to $25 per acre. This land will all be immediately resurveyed, and can be sold in larger or smaller parcels, to suit purchasers. It can be subdivided to the best possible advantage, and I can offer any person or persons, or colony of persons, desiring to purchase homes in the best part of the Willamette Valley, near the city of Salem and within reach of the best social advantages, as well as most favorably located with respect to markets, greater advantages, on more favorable terms, than they can ever expect to realize again.
